

Ordering “Japhet Blues” School Uniforms

Japhet School students in JK/Kindergarten through Middle School wear “Japhet Blues” every Monday, and on some field trips or for special events. Japhet Blues consist of:

Blue shirt with Japhet School logo and khaki bottoms

Students may wear layers of Japhet Blues. We recommend that all students have a short-sleeve collared Japhet shirt as a minimum, which may be worn alone or on top of a long-sleeve shirt for warmth.

Uniforms must be worn every Monday, beginning the first Monday of October. They must be the outer layer and may not be covered up on Mondays with a non-branded hoodie or sweater. Many students also have Japhet Blues fleeces for cold months.

Uniform Partner: Lands' End

We are very pleased to partner with Lands' End as our official “Japhet Blues” supplier. The benefits of Lands' End include:

- high-quality merchandise
- a large selection of sizes, including regular, extended sizes, and adults
- free hemming on pants
- free shipping and returns, even logo'd merchandise
- parents order directly and preview the attire on the website
- an opportunity to order any time in the school year

Our unique Japhet School account on the Lands' End website has blue shirts and khaki bottoms. All shirts must be logo'd, and must be ordered through Lands' End. We included khaki bottoms on the site for parents' convenience, but pants, skirts, and shorts may be purchased anywhere.

ANY SHIRT that is available on the Japhet School Lands' End page is acceptable as a “Japhet Blues” shirt. There are short- and long-sleeve polo shirts, hoodie and crewneck sweatshirts, half- and full-zip fleeces, and button-up Oxford shirts. Plain blue shirts are not an acceptable substitution.

To order, go to the Lands' End website below. Note: Lands' End often has specials, such as free logos and percentage-off sales. Join their email list before you plan to order to be notified of these discounts.
