

Ordering “Japhet Blues” School Uniforms from Lands’ End

Japhet Blues, worn by Japhet School students in JK/Kindergarten through Middle School, consist of: Blue shirt with Japhet School logo and khaki bottoms.

Uniforms must be worn every Monday, beginning the first Monday of October and throughout the school year and on some field trips or for special events. They must be the outer layer and may not be covered up on Mondays with a non-branded hoodie or sweater.

Japhet School partners with Lands' End as our official “Japhet Blues” supplier. To order, go to the Lands’ End website below. Note: Lands' End often has specials, such as free logos and percentage-off sales. Join their email list before you plan to order to be notified of these discounts.

landsend.com/school

Japhet School Preferred School Number: 900163965

Our unique Japhet School account on the Lands' End website has blue shirts and khaki bottoms. All shirts must be logo'd and must be ordered through Lands' End. ANY SHIRT that is available on the Japhet School Lands' End page is acceptable as a “Japhet Blues” shirt. We included khaki bottoms on the site for parents' convenience, but pants, skirts, and shorts may be purchased anywhere.

